

Die Veneris, 8 Martii, 1649.

Mr. Millington Reports from the Committee of Plundered Ministers, the matter of Fact touching the Book entituled, The Doctrine of the Fourth Commandment deformed by Popery, reformed and restored to its Primitive Purity, &c. And the examination of Augustine Nicholas, Servant to Gartrude Dawson, Printer of the said Book for James Oakeford; and the examination of John Hide.

Resolved by the Parliament,

That this Book (entituled, The Doctrine of the Fourth Commandment deformed by Popery, reformed and restored to its Primitive Purity, &c.) ascerting the observation of the Iewish Sabbath, and condemning the observation of the Lords day as the Christian Sabbath, is Erroneous, Scandalous and Prophane, contrary to the practice of the Apostles, and of all the Christian Churches.

Resolved by the Parliament,

That all the Printed Copies of the said Books be burnt; And that the Marshal be required to do the same at the Exchange and in Cheap-side.

Resolved by the Parliament,

That all Printed Copies of the said Book, wheresoever they shall be found in England or Wales, shall be brought to the Chief Magistrate of the place where the same shall be found, who is hereby required and enjoined to cause the same to be burnt accordingly.

Hen: Scobell, Cleric. Parliamenti.

Ms. M2271

Ms. L. 517

(14)

7202680

M2271

The Ven. 8 March, 1649.

Mrs. William Reports from the Committee of Plundered Ministers, the matter of fact touching the Book entitled, The Doctrine of the Fourth Commandment deformed by Popery, reformed and restored to its Primitive Purity, &c. And the examination of Augustine Nicolson, Secretary to the said Reports, Printer of the said Book for James Oakeford; and the examination of John Hyde.

Resolved by the Parliament,

That this Book (entitled, The Doctrine of the Fourth Commandment deformed by Popery, reformed and restored to its Primitive Purity, &c.) altering the observation of the Jewish Sabbath, and condemning the observation of the Lords day as the Christian Sabbath, is erroneous, scandalous and prophane, contrary to the practice of the Apostles, and of all the Christian Churches.

Resolved by the Parliament,

That all the Printed Copies of the said Books be burnt; And that the Master be required to do the same at the Exchange and in Cheap-side.

Resolved by the Parliament,

That all Printed Copies of the said Book, wheresoever they shall be found in England or Wales, shall be brought to the Chief Magistrate of the place where the same shall be found, who is hereby required and enjoined to cause the same to be burnt accordingly.

Hen: Scobell, Cleric. Parliament.